

Misusing American Freedoms

by Paul Dolan

Rabbleroxing, desecration of our national symbols and monuments, and sedition are felonies punishable by fines and imprisonment up to 20 years.

Photo: iStock by Getty Images

It is not the first time, that freely elected officials to the U.S. Congress are misusing the American electoral system, that enabled their election, to corrupt our Democracy. Members of the U.S. Congress declared independence of the Union in the 1860s. That led to the Civil War.

Abraham Lincoln did not stand for it. Americans will not tolerate the escapades of certain Republican congressmen and women who assault our Democracy, demonstrating their disrespect for truth, majority rule and our time-honored electoral process. The government will mete out the punishment they deserve.

They will be replaced by loyal Americans, who honor the values and principles on which the United States of America is founded and thrives.

Proudly, I quote Lincoln's words, during his run for U.S. Senate on 10 October 1860:

"Wise statesmen as they were, they knew the tendency of posterity to breed tyrants; and so they established these great self-evident truths, that when in some distant future some man, some faction, some interest should set up the doctrine, that none but rich men, or none but white men, or none but Anglo-Saxons, were entitled to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, their posterity might look up again at the Declaration of Independence, and take courage to renew the battle which their fathers began."

Paul Dolan